Assignments:

*This goes on every paper, whether handwriting or typing and applies to every class on your schedule!

First and Last Name
(If there is no name, I will shred it.)

The Blended Classroom:

Our class will run under the “blended” model, meaning we have more access to technology, and student responsibility is higher. We will talk more in class about what this means and expectations, but your enthusiasm, flexibility and hard work are required!

Homework Policy:

*Responsibility Points- 10% of your grade will be based on responsibility points. Included in these points are class participation, on-time assignments, bringing materials, and classroom behavior. These points are included for each unit in your grade, and can raise or lower your grade by an entire letter.

*Late Work Policy- Assignments are due on the determined date. It is your responsibility to manage your due dates and be timely in your work. If you fall behind, you need to communicate a plan with your teacher. Work will only be accepted during the unit in which it was assigned. If you consistently miss due dates, your parent and/or administrators may become involved.
Bottom line: Stay on top of your stuff.
